

The Christian Legal Centre introduces the...

Wilberforce Academy

in association with the...

Alliance Defense Fund

21 - 26 Mar 2010
Oxford University

Calling all future lawyers, politicians, journalists, civil servants, and all who want to make a difference in public life.

Learn - Learn natural law principles and the foundation of law.

Lead - Lead driving change in the legal system.

Defend - Defend religious liberty, the sanctity of life and traditional family values.

Successful applicants will gather at Oxford University for a residential week of lectures, seminars, worship, devotions, and interactive discussions designed to confront conventional wisdom in legal education and present a principled, analytical framework and Christian viewpoint. You will leave not only with increased knowledge and conviction, but also with connections to other interns and faculty that will assist you throughout your education and career.

Sponsored by:

Changing Society to put the Hope of Christ at its Centre

Successful applicants are awarded places after interview and sponsored by the Alliance Defense Fund, CLC & CCFON.
